

ONE YEAR 1973

THE WASHINGTONIAN

Oh dear old Booker T.....

Our love for thee will never die....

We'll love these walls, adore these halls

As all the years go by.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA 1972

Togetherness Is

Although the opening of schools was delayed by the courts, the students entered Booker T. Washington displaying a feeling of togetherness-togetherness for one common goal-- Education... Venturing Into A New Horizon.

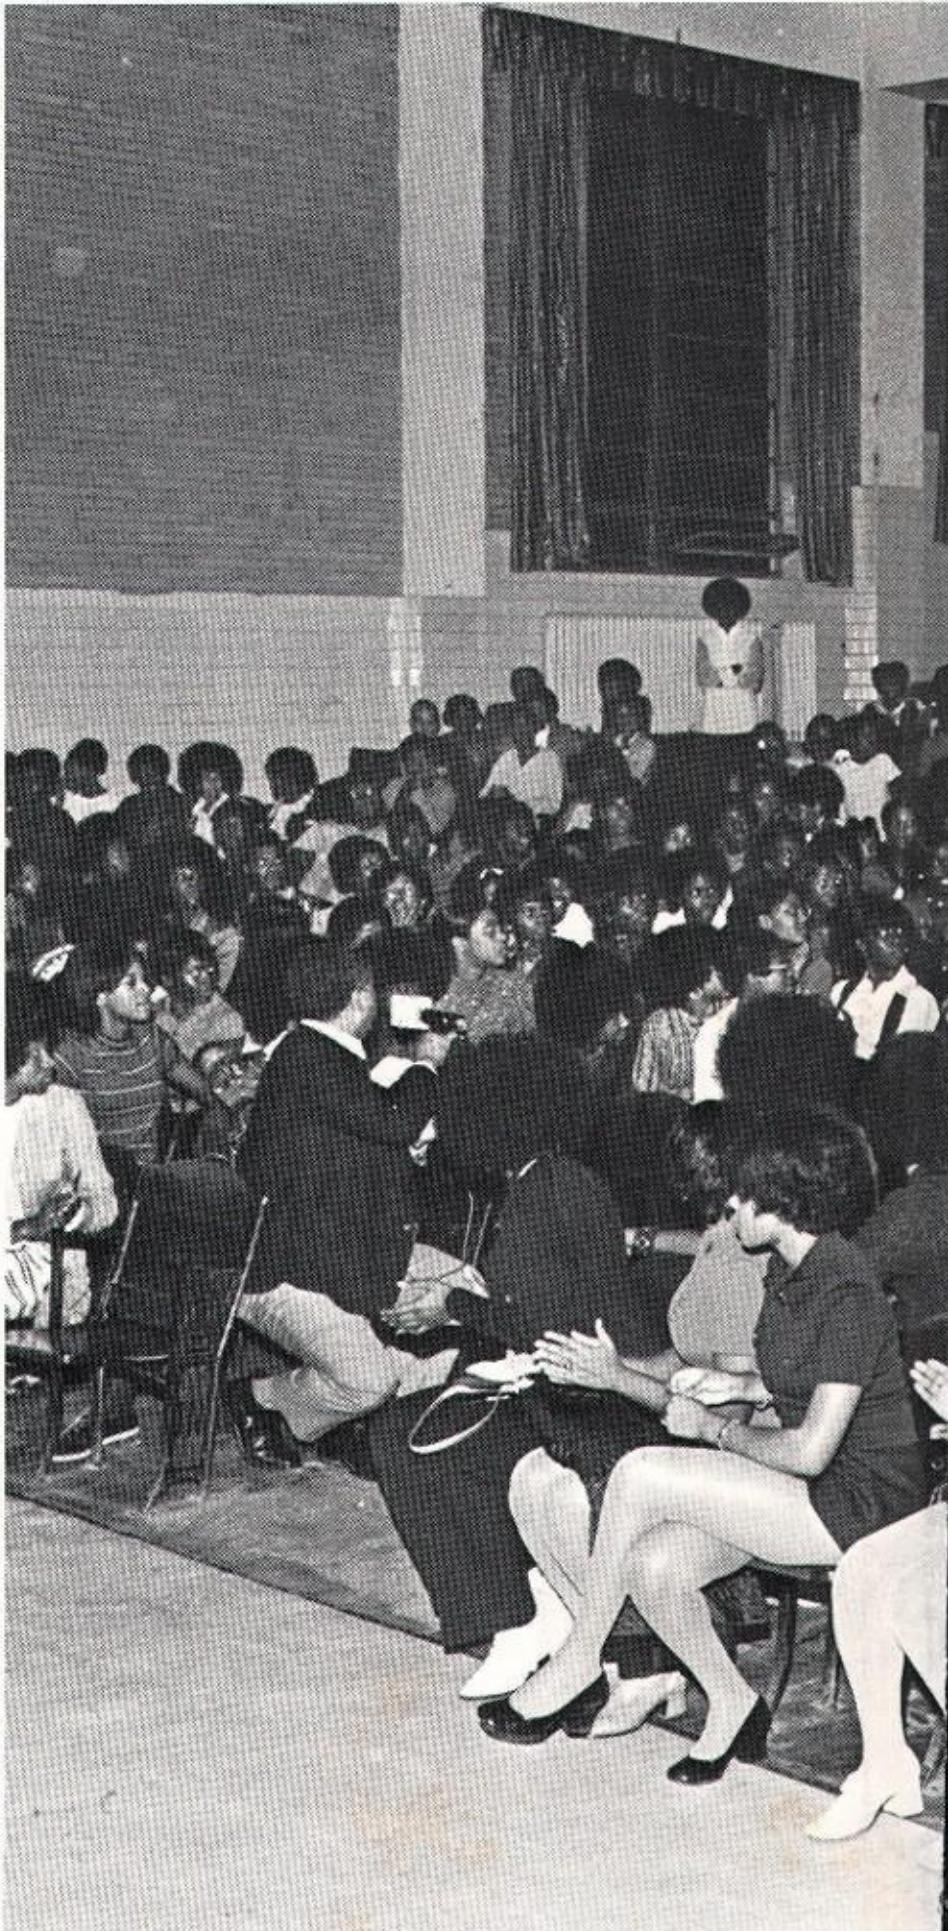

The students immediately realized that although the teacher was the focal point of instruction

"No man can reveal to you ought but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

If he is indeed wise, he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind . . . "

National Honor Society Inducts 38

The National Association of Secondary School Principals has long sought ways to stimulate scholarship. The organization of the National Honor Society is one expression of this concern.

Membership in the National Honor Society has become recognized as one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a high school student. Membership is, however, more than an honor; it carries with it a responsibility and should be considered the beginning of an obligation, not merely the successful culmination of an effort to achieve recognition and honor.

VOT Prepares Students For Office Jobs And Careers In Business

Vocational Office Training is the capstone of a high school student's training program in office occupations. It provides opportunities for high school students to learn basic skills for office jobs and prepares them for careers in business. VOT is based on the principle that on-the-job training, with competent supervision, provides the best learning experience for the student. Students are given the opportunity to earn while learning, thus enabling many students to remain in school through graduation.

“If a man does not keep pace with his companions,
perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.”

— H.D. Thoreau
